Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Admiral Turner:

When I served as your supply officer on the USS Rowan (DD782) in 1963, little did I realize that you would eventually assume your current duties (although our visit to Amapala should have been some indication). Actually, the rest of wardroom and I had you being CNO eventually.

Be that as it may, I had truly intended to write my congratulations at the time of your appointment, but somehow got sidetracked. I am writing now not only to offer my belated good wishes but also to say that I plan to be in Washington on November 29. If your calendar is not too crowded that day, I would like to drop by for no other reason than to say "hello." My only constraint is that I have to be in Germantown, Maryland, from 2:00 to 3:00, so if you have any time in the morning or late afternoon, I am at your service.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Robert G. Armknecht
Vice President
